The Pastime

SPECIAL FOR TONIGHT.

The Selig Company presents Fred Walton, the monarch of silent comedy, in a witty and funny comedy.

"THE HALL ROOM BOYS"

Join us in a good, hearty laugh.

Mr. Ward McAllister Nash left yesterday for a week's outing at Ruggles Campgrounds.

Councilman J. H. Derech has gone to Fleming county for a few weeks for the benefit of his health.

Mrs. Philip Hodgkin has returned to her home at Winchester, after a visit to relatives in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Leer and little daughter, Miss Josephine of Millersburg, are visiting relatives at Mayslick.

Rev. John Barbour has gone to Chicago, where Mrs. Barbour and daughter have been for several weeks.

Miss Ethel Bramel, Mr. W. T. Bramel, Mrs. M. D. Bramel and Mrs. G. Brandt of the county were in the city yesterday shopping.

Captain C. M. Phister and son, Mr. Laurence Phister of Kansas City, have joined families at Swan Creek, Ohio, for a few weeks' rest.

Mrs. Lida Davis and children, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jennie Minton of Commerce street, returned to their home in Lexington this morning.

Miss Ellen Cochran, Miss Harriet Cochran and Mr. Robert Cochran left yesterday on a three weeks' automobile trip through Central Kentucky. They will also visit their uncle, Mr. A. J. Grundy, at Lebanon.

THE HONEST PROPRIETARY MEDICINE has saved thousands of dollars to families who could ill afford the expense necessary to maintain the service of a physician, and have answered the purpose equally as well and often succeeded after our best physicians have failed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is one of this kind.

Miss Julia Ryan left Monday to visit relatives in Versailles.

Mr. Charles McMath of Moscow, Ohio, was circulating in Maysville yesterday.

Miss Anna Lynch left this morning for Cincinnati, where she will spend several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. James Kinsella.

Hon. James N. Kehoe of Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank is in Ashland today attending the meeting of the District Bankers' Association.

Mr. Paul E. Burling, who left here with John L. Winter for the Lone Star State, now of Dallas, Texas, is here shaking hands with his many friends.

Get your happiness out of your work or you'll never know what happiness is.

Lieutenant Governor W. H. Cox is well enough to go about the city, but is still quite weak and is not yet free from his attack of fever.

The West side of Market street is bricked ready for the filler, and with favorable weather the entire street will about be completed Saturday night. It is going to be a great improvement.

SAYS THE VETERAN CROUCH

Listen and Ye Shall Hear Just How the Ideal Boarding House Should Be Run.

"As I look back," said the veteran boarder, "I find the one common complaint that everywhere crops out to be of cold plates and cold food. Here is something that every boarding-house keeper has quite within control but which is nevertheless commonly neglected."

"Many a boarder has been lost by serving to him cold food on cold plates. The boarder with, or it may without, reason may have been troubled about other things and may stay, but let him get a suggestion of cold dinners and some day he says at last: 'Well, I can't stand this any longer; I'm going to quit.' The cold plates and cold food being the last straw that breaks the camel's back."

"What is needed is grace in the kitchen; grace and thoughtfulness, grace to serve things in a way to make them attractive and pleasing to the eye and thoughtfulness to keep the food and the plates hot. I have always thought and I still think that if I kept a hotel or a boarding house and I had nothing but hasty pudding to give my people to eat I would shape it in pretty molds before I sent it to the table, and above all things I'd serve it hot and give them hot plates from which to eat it. I know you will agree with me that so served the simplest food would be far more pleasing to the palate and the fancy. Hot food and hot plates would promote peace and happiness and bring to many a boarding house prosperity."

Nigeria.

The estimated area of southern Nigeria is 77,000 square miles, that of northern Nigeria, the hinterland of southern Nigeria, is estimated at 225,000, and the native population of the two combined at from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000, yet any effort at scientific agriculture or mining is confronted by the labor question. The wants of the natives are few, and on account of their primitive custom of acquiring only personal property, and that in the form of cattle, wives and children, depending on the latter in old age for support, they give little thought to laying aside money for use in time of illness or old age. In the far interior traders say that the natives often refuse money in exchange for their products, gathered where they have not sown, but will receive tobacco, spirits, cotton goods, etc., when they desire them for immediate use. In some parts of the hinterland tobacco is an absolute necessity in trading with the natives.

Smith—Did Henpeque make any demonstration at his mother-in-law's funeral?
Jinks—Yes. You could hear him laughing two blocks away.

HER CHEAP DINNER.

She found the price of meat so high She didn't even stop to spy: Quoth she: "I'll be overhasty. But think up something cheap and tasty."

Then with a smile upon her face She hid to the grocer's place: Ten cents for corn of this year's canning! 'Twas wonderful, her clever planning!

That night corn fritters sat in state Upon her board, and quite elate She got her husband interested In the dime she had invested. But—well—men are so obtuse. To try and please them is no use. Her husband, sans a single stutter, Remarked: "Say, what's the price of butter?"

And then he figured up the corn And eggs and butter that had gone Into those fritters and the butter And ended with: "Why, what's the matter?"

Of course, she'd fainted! 'Twas a shock! She might have had a Plymouth Rock! In fact, a quail or two were lost her In what these cheap corn fritters cost her!

—LORNA W. SHELDON, in New York Times.

WOULDN'T REACH.

Miss Hefty—Charley Softleigh tried to put his arms around me last night. Miss Cutting—And wouldn't they reach around?

A Waiting Attitude.

"Triggs pays his wife devoted attention."
"I guess he will be doing that for a long time to come."
"What makes you think so?"
"She doesn't show the slightest inclination to give Triggs control of her fortune."

One Woman's Way.

"Yes," said the doctor, "I once knew a woman who died from worry."
"What did she worry about?" queried the pale patient.
"Why, she just worried because she had nothing to worry her," answered the M. D.

She Meant It, Too.

Mayme—I was surprised to hear of your engagement to Mr. DeFright. Only a few weeks ago you told me you wouldn't marry him if he had a million dollars.
Edyth—Yes, I know; but since then I discovered that two is better than one.

Appropriate Lodgment.

"This is a strictly up-to-date prison. You notice that all the drink prisoners are behind bars, and all the women inmates in tiers."
"And what do you do with the intelligent and educated prisoners?"
"We put them in the brain cells."

It Is Different.

"Papa, what is meant by placing a witness under the rule?"
"Why do you wish to know?"
"I was wondering if it is anything like placing a school boy under the rule?"

"You say it was your 'double' that stole the chickens?"
"Yessuh."
"You know I gave you 30 days once for chicken stealing?"
"Ah remembah, sub."
"Well, this time you get 60. That's the court's double."

AMPLE HEAT AT LEAST COST

IMMENSE heating bills and not enough REAL heat to talk about aptly describes past winter conditions in thousands of homes. But while their neighbors were shivering in "cold storage atmosphere," hundreds of Kentucky users of

THE PECK-WILLIAMSON UNDERFEED
FURNACES AND BOILERS

Were living in perfect comfort all over the house. The Underfeed coal burning way—fuel fed from below—all the fire on top—insures as much clean, even heat from cheapest slack as highest priced coal which ordinary heating plants require. This enables Underfeed users to

SAVE 1/2 TO 3/4 OF COAL BILLS

Mr. J. E. Crider, President of the Crider Creamery Company, Fredonia, Ky., relates his Underfeed experience thus:

"We installed one of your No. 739 Underfeed furnaces in our 12-room house about two years ago. We have found the furnace very satisfactory indeed. The furnace is extremely economical, fires easily and the heat is quite evenly distributed throughout the various rooms. We use nut and slack coal for fuel with perfect results and much prefer the Underfeed to any heating device with which we are familiar."

Send for our FREE book about UNDERFEED Furnaces and Boilers and let us PROVE that it will pay you to discard old-fashioned heating methods and install the satisfactory dividend-paying Underfeed. Heating plans and services of our Engineering Department all FREE. Write today.
